STATE OF NEW YORK)
)ss.:
COUNTY OF KINGS)

PETER J. NIEBERG, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the grandson of HARRY NIEBERG, who, more than seventy years ago, succeeded to the ownership of the funeral home now operated by my brother, STANLEY NIEBERG, and me located at 1625 Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

2. My brother, STANLEY, and I are fifth generation owners and operators of the funeral home, whose business was started by our great, great grandparents in the Civil War era at a location then situated on Benjamin Street and later on Ludlow Street in Manhattan.

3. The family business, which we now operate, goes back more than one hundred fifty years and assumed the NIEBERG name more than seventy years ago, when HARRY NIEBERG succeeded his predecessors-in-interest and did business under the name and then changed it more than seventy years ago when he expanded his funeral services to a chapel in the Midwood Section of Flatbush, Brooklyn, where he did business under the name HARRY NIEBERG & SONS. The sons referred to my father and uncle. That change was made before I, STANLEY or our brother, HARRY, were even born.

4. My brothers, STANLEY and HARRY, and I became equal shareholders of the entities operating the funeral home in 1996. HARRY admits to never having, any involvement in the day-to-day operations of the funeral parlor after 1990. He did receive, from 1990 through 2006, the same perquisites of employment as STANLEY and me. HARRY was never responsible for any operations of the funeral business.

5. At the time STANLEY and I began operating the funeral home, we continued to use the name HARRY NIEBERG & SONS as well as NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. and we used both of those names on the funeral chapel itself and in documents, mailings, advertising, both local and in interstate commerce, since we performed, and continue to perform services in connection with our Florida clients, Israel burials, and other tri-state activities including numerous burials occasioned by deaths in New Jersey, Connecticut, as well as New York. We have, and continue to advertise in the Yellow Pages in Florida and, during the period had satellite offices in various places outside the State, including in Florida.

6. The history of the NIEBERG family as well as the manner in which the names NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. and HARRY NIEBERG & SONS have been, and now are used, was attached as Exhibit B to the Counterclaim in this action and is attached hereto for the convenience of the Court as Exhibit 1. Additional photographs and representative samples of uses made of those names, both locally and in interstate commerce, including photographs of the hearses which we operate across state lines bearing those names, which we have used and currently use in interstate commerce are collectively attached as Exhibit 2.

7. At no time has our brother, HARRY, advertised, promoted, used or attempted to use the name HARRY NIEBERG, his given name, in the funeral business. Instead, he has devoted his time, his energies and his monies to breeding of horses and racing horses in various harness racing venues including, but not limited to, Monticello Race Track and other tracks in New York, Maryland, Canada and elsewhere. To the extent his name is known to anyone, it is only in connection with the trotters. It was never known as the source of any livelihood in the funeral business. During those years, HARRY owned, individually and with others, more than one hundred horses, sometimes twenty or more at one time, all of whose names I have identified on Exhibit 3, to which I have also attached website printouts from the U.S. Trotters Association showing HARRY's involvement with the trotters as late as December 21, 2007, the same day his Nevada attorneys sought to represent him in the Supreme Court, Kings County, after SHERMAN hung the corporate plaque "HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME INC." on its front door and HARRY threatened to allow SHERMAN to use the name in competition with us.

8. The name under which the NIEBERG family funeral business was conducted and under which it is still conducted was and is NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. and HARRY NIEBERG & SONS. HARRY has no sons and to my knowledge, is not claiming that he is the HARRY NIEBERG whose name appears on our building.

9. While my grandfather, HARRY, was alive, it was also my grandfather's name which was always associated with the funeral home and it was my grandfather who twice was elected as President or Officer of the Jewish Association of Funeral Directors, a nationwide organization of funeral directors, and an organization with which my brother, HARRY, had and has no connection.

10. There is submitted together with this Affidavit, Affidavits from prominent people expert in the funeral industry, including MELVIN BURG, a renowned Rabbi in Brooklyn and Executive Vice President of the Rabbinical Board of Flatbush, RICHARD ADLMAN, a well known and major supplier of caskets to funeral homes in the tri-state area; MICHAEL MIRABELLO, a livery owner active in the tri-state area, who supplies hearses and other rolling stock to the funeral industry, and of one of our competitors, EDWARD WEINSTEIN, all of whom attest to the fact that NIEBERG and HARRY NIEBERG & SONS are "synonymous" with the funeral business and the funeral home operated by STANLEY and me on Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn. I have also attached as Exhibit 4 website printouts and other material, including a newspaper article appearing in The New York Times in 1999, before the buyout of my brother HARRY's interest in 2006 recognizing that the funeral business on Coney Island Avenue is conducted by STANLEY and me, not HARRY.

SOME HISTORY OF THE DISPUTES WITH HARRY

11. In 2004, a dispute arose between my brother STANLEY and me on the one hand and HARRY on the other, arising out of the fact that HARRY insisted on receiving the same perquisites as we, although performing no services; that HARRY expected us to pay and continue paying for his trotter related endeavors and the tax consultant he used in connection with his harness racing business as well as gas, tolls, and other payments paid directly by us or charged to our corporate credit card totaling substantially more than $1,000 a month and we refused to do that. HARRY thereupon instituted dissolution proceedings to dissolve the entities operating the funeral home in the Supreme Court, Kings County, and demanded that the corporate assets be sold.

12. Rather than promoting the NIEBERG name in the funeral industry, my brother HARRY sought to destroy our funeral business. Both in and out of the dissolution proceeding, he leveled attacks against us, our mother, GERTRUDE NIEBERG, for assertedly having acted to HARRY's detriment using – outside of the Courthouse - four letter words and other unprintable depictions of our mother, which are the antithesis of family unity or respect for the NIEBERG name.

13. The dissolution action was not resolved by a decree. It was settled without any appraisal of the value of HARRY's shares, without concessions of any liability on the part of any one, with each party represented by counsel of his own choosing.

14. HARRY was paid $2,500,000 and other benefits, including consulting fees, pension distribution, and New Jersey graves owned by us for his personal and not commercial use.

15. My brother, STANLEY and I, retained the funeral business, maintained both the name HARRY NIEBERG & SONS on our literature, hearses, interstate and other mailings, and, on the building itself. STANLEY and I have now committed more than $100,000 to repair, improve and restore the building to its former glory under the names, NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC./HARRY NIEBERG & SONS with the intention to proudly display those names. HARRY insofar as we knew, and as reflected on the U.S. Trotting Association website, devoted all his time and energies, and presumably the money he received from us, to the trotters. Until October 2007, neither I nor STANLEY ever heard anything at, from or about HARRY in the funeral industry.

HARRY'S POST BUYOUT CONDUCT

16. A number of disputes arose after HARRY was paid the agreed upon $2,500,000 consideration, the consulting fee, and received the graves for his personal use in New Jersey in September 2006.

17. Without any editorial comment, there is attached hereto and marked Exhibit 5 copies of the pleadings in the various actions in the Supreme Court, Kings County, in which HARRY raised the issue of his status as a beneficiary under an asserted insurance trust which he alleged was created by our mother, GERTRUDE, the action instituted by us against HARRY involving the use of the name HARRY NIEBERG in competition with us, as to which HARRY's Nevada attorneys moved for admission pro hac on December 21st, and the latest proceeding instituted by us to vacate judgments secured by confessions of judgment securing our obligation to pay HARRY his pension benefits which were entered by HARRY after those pension benefits were paid. No answering papers have yet been filed by HARRY on that latest action and his attorneys asked for and were granted an extension of the return date to April 10, 2008.

THE MISSTATEMENTS IN HARRY'S AFFIDAVIT

18. There is attached hereto as Exhibit 6, the just received letter, under seal, from the New York State Department of Health, Bureau of Funeral Directing, attesting to the fact that HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME INC. was not, and is not now, registered with the Department of Health. Contrary to the statements made in HARRY's Affidavit, he did not, according to information received by me from the Department of Health, commence the licensing process. He asked for and was sent an application which I am told he never returned.

19. HARRY has stated that we interfered with his business dealings with SHERMAN in October 2007 and that SHERMAN refused thereafter to have any dealings with him. That statement is untrue. In January 2008, a long term client of our funeral home, PEARL HOLLENBERG, suffered the death of her sister, and called Verizon Information to secure our, not HARRY's, telephone number. MS. HOLLENBERG was misdirected to HARRY and SHERMAN provided a graveside service for which the HOLLENBERG family was billed more than $6,000. MS. HOLLENBERG expressed to us her distress in the misrepresentation and how distraught she was by the fact that SHERMAN had conducted the service and not us. I have obtained a copy of the Death Certificate for MS. HOLLENBERG's kin, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 7, which shows that the funeral establishment which made the arrangements was the purported "licensee" "SHERMAN's FLATBUSH MEMORIAL CHAPEL INC." The fact is, that HARRY continues to advertise his name and the name of his unregistered entity, HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME INC. at the SHERMAN address and SHERMAN, which has not submitted any affidavit on this motion, has apparently permitted him to do so.

20. I have been advised and believe that it is we, the defendants, who have achieved secondary meaning in the use of the name HARRY NIEBERG & SONS and NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. and that HARRY's moving Affidavit sets forth no facts which would permit the Court to conclude that a person who never advertised his name in the funeral industry at any time in the past, and who incorporates for the first time in July 2007, and does not register his corporate entity with the Department of Health and who never uses his name or that of his newly created entity in either local or interstate commerce has acquired secondary meaning in his name.

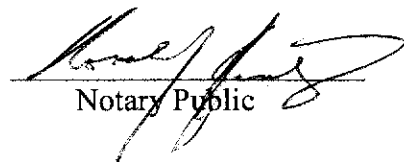

21. HARRY has told various people in the industry, including suppliers and Rabbis not to deal with our funeral home. He has told our livery supplier, "You are betting on a losing horse.” HARRY called RABBI MELVIN BURG, impersonating myself, saying “Help Rabbi, the police are coming to get me” trying to discredit me. Also he called RABBI PROSPER MURCIANO and told him not to deal with us. All this is an addition to lies and slander that he told to countless relatives and friends.

For the reasons set forth above, it is respectfully requested, that HARRY’s motion be in all respects denied and that we be reimbursed our counsel fees and expenses for opposing this motion.

New Nieberg Mortuary Climaxes Four Generations of Outstanding Service

Century-old Manhattan Pioneer and Leader Dedicates Midwood Memorial Chapel, new Brooklyn Unit . . . History of Organization Spans Development of Profession Since Earliest Days . . . Community Friendships and Contacts of Ante-Bellum Days Provided Foundation for Subsequent Expansion and Present-Day Activities.

As told to P. N. Rothe

By BEATRICE (PETE) NIEBERG

THE history of the founding and development of the first Jewish "undertaking" establishment in New York City, eminently conducted today by the direct descendants of the founder under the title of Harry Nieberg & Sons, is a veritable chronicle of a century of human progress and advancement in the nation's greatest metropolis. This record of one of Manhattan's earliest mortuaries traverses the entire mosaic of professional achievement and enhancement in services to the dead and to the living. Yet underlying this history of the efforts of four generations, the greatest satisfaction of all no doubt rests in the fact that the men and women who thus labored looked beyond their own selfish interests of serving a hugely surging population. They contributed substantially to the furtherance of their profession, to the methods and ideals that have made the profession what it is today. The recent opening of the Midwood Memorial Chapel, new Sons, epitomizes the other end of the long road that began in the days when Abe Lincoln, the rail splitter, was destined to lead a nation out of the degradation of human slavery.

Abe Lincoln was a candidate for president of the United States, and "slavers and abolitionists" represented the contending political factions of the day, when Benjamin Rosenthal established in Elizabeth street the first Jewish funeral home in New York city. New York then had not even been dubbed "little old New York," and water actually flowed through the canal of Canal street, which today is jammed with motorized traffic spanning the lower reaches of Manhattan Island. The streets then seemed barren except for playing children, and the horse-drawn fire engine, ambulance or funeral procession was an occurrence of special significance. "Uptown" then was Twenty-third street—folks knew all other folks, that Benjamin Rosenthal, who theretofore had used his wagon as a moving van and headquarters for his ice business, conducted between hauls, decided to become an undertaker. Perhaps he had supplied the ice for the preservation of the deceased, the only method practiced at that time; or perhaps he had carried coffins on some of his hauls. At any rate, recognizing his aptitude, and realizing the need for a Jewish undertaker in the community, he went into the funeral business.

Thus Benjamin Rosenthal, young immigrant boy, who had sailed for three months to reach America from Germany, changed his status from that of moving man and ice boy to that of undertaker. By the close of the Civil War, with its deplorable toll of dead, young Rosenthal found himself well seasoned and established. He was looking forward to the day when his small sons would take their places beside him. Of his family of three sons and four daughters, Isaac, who was born in 1857, in Mott street, now the heart of Chinatown, proved most adept in following his father's adopted profession.

Isaac's assiduousness was a dominant characteristic from early youth. He would conduct the business while his father traveled west to Mississippi to buy "green horses" for the livery equipment, which had grown considerably since the moving-van days.

Isaac Rosenthal gradually undertook full responsibility of the business, and when his father passed away in 1880 he already had earned a reputation of his own within the profession. During his career he moved several times, keeping, however, within the radius of a few blocks. His locations had such romantic names as "Cow Alley," from whence he established on a site now used by the Williamsburg bridge. With the coming of the bridge, he left his premises to occupy the Dewey stables, a spot familiar to all citizens at that time. Finally he located at 141 Ludlow street, on the very site where now are the Manhattan headquarters of Harry Nieberg & Sons.

His career was as interesting and colorful as his personality, and clearly reflected the human side of life in the community. He believed true friends and sound horses were all any man could ask for, and he was friend to both. Humanity could boast of no finer example.

"Ike," as he was called by both young and old alike with the warmth and familiarity of an old friend, could always be found listening to someone's tale of woe or joy, or spinning a yarn of his own. His keen sense of humor and his great love of life, whether it be man or beast, won him the respect of those who came within his sphere of activity.

His own profession afforded Isaac his greatest interest. It offered fine material for his stories. Gifted with the soul of a bard, he gloried in the progress made by his profession from his father's day to his, and told of it many times. He recalled that his father had told of packing bodies in snow in the winter to conserve ice. Embalming had still not been practiced, except at the front during the Civil War, when bodies had to be shipped long distances. Embalming at best then was crude and practiced only out of dire need for the sole purpose of preservation, without a thought to the cosmetic effect. Arterial embalming had not yet been practiced, and the trocar and a bottle of camphorated spirits of wine or a compound of aluminum acetate and aluminum sulphate, were the embalmer's complete equipment.

Isaac Rosenthal told of his father taking the first body to Bayside cemetery in Woodhaven, and was proud of having made the first interment in Mt. Zion cemetery in far away Maspeth. That was a wilderness then. He repeated many times his experience of leading a funeral to Washington cemetery in a horse-drawn sleigh because the snow made the trip to the suburbs of Brooklyn impossible for hearse and horse.

The public then had not been educated to avail themselves of the use of a chapel or funeral home. Since most interments were made from the decedent's residence, "Ike" Rosenthal had little need for anything more pretentious than an office, large enough for his personal use, a stable for his stock and rigs, and a storeroom for his paraphernalia. The few cases that did not leave from the home were laid out in the rear of the office and services conducted there, amid the ringing of telephones and prancing of horses in the adjoining side of the building.

His business thrived, despite the lack of facilities as we know them today, but his one lament was not having a son to follow in his footsteps. Each of his four daughters worked with him for a while, but marriage soon retired them all. Lillian Rosenthal, the second oldest, and of the third generation, spent the longest time in the business. Her fiancé, Harry Nieberg, a building contractor by trade, was obliged to offer his services to his prospective father-in-law when the occasion demanded it. Commencing with the driving of a coach and the casketing of a body, to the complete charge of directing a funeral, Harry Nieberg soon became indispensable to the Rosenthal organization.

Indeed, Harry Nieberg showed remarkable ability and fitness from the first. He applied himself as naturally as if he had been in the business for many years. This was a constant source of contentment and pleasure to Mr. Rosenthal, who by now had become Mr. Nieberg's father-in-law. During his middle years Mr. Rosenthal became ill and needed a younger man to relieve him of some of the responsibilities. At the close of 1914, Mr. Rosenthal submitted to an operation and left the running of his establishment solely in the hands of his son-in-law. Mr. Rosenthal retired from the business with the knowledge that his reputation for professional competence and service, built by two generations, would not be lost or dissipated by his absence. It was with profound grief that the community learned of Mr. Rosenthal's death in 1915. He was an honest man and true friend—he had served humanity well.

In 1915 Harry Nieberg, then a young man of 24, found himself the chief executive of an undertaking and livery establishment—a rich background behind him and a challenging future before him. His inherent qualities of leadership aided his drive for progress. His first campaign was to affect some important changes in the physical appearance of the establishment. The partition that made part of the office a storeroom for feed and oats had to be removed, so that all space available could be utilized for chapel purposes, to accommodate fifty people instead of twenty-five. The makeshift chapel in the rear of the office took on a more dignified air. An undertaker's store front replaced the old brick wall. The elaborate cabinet that displayed a hearse-horse harness and set of nets, the crest and pride of every livery man, had to leave, as did the era it represented. The automobile had already made its appearance.

The old-timers looked with doubt upon a motor hearse as a vehicle of practicality. It could never be relied upon to reach a cemetery, they said. Youth, however, recognized the writing on the wall and in 1916 Harry Nieberg proudly presented his Ford motor wagon, the first of its type in Manhattan, which he incorporated into his horse-drawn livery. Odd stable mates they were, indeed, and before very long the complete metamorphosis had to be effected. Mr. Nieberg's first fleet consisted of 1917 Pierce-Arrows, comprising hearses, flower cars and an ambulance. This change necessitated the fire-proofing and remodeling of the stable to meet the requirements of auto equipment. Along with the stable alteration, Harry Nieberg decided upon a new chapel on the floor above, which would enable him to conduct two funerals at the same time. The alteration had not long been completed before the influenza epidemic and the return of some of the World War dead changed the appearance of the room from that of a funeral chapel to something that more resembled a warehouse. Both soldiers and flu victims were arranged in every space available. The winter was bad, and funeral processions had to be dispensed with. Hearses, wagons and even flower cars, made daily trips to the cemetery with as many bodies as could be carried by each. An average of twenty-three interments a day, in addition to the livery he supplied to other funeral directors, tested Harry Nieberg's ability to the utmost.

Through the years Harry Nieberg proved himself a true friend of the people in the community. They came to depend upon him in their sorrows and losses, and they looked also to him for support in their lesser problems. He and his establishment became a pillar in their society, to which all, regardless of color, race or creed, turned. Whether domestic problems or financial problems, for advice or moral support—he was regarded as the man to call upon. He was one of them, and they were his people. They were people who acted according to the dictates of their hearts, whose faith and trust he had earned and cherished. They began to call him the "Big Fellow," not only because of his stature, but because that was the way they could best describe him.

EDWIN NIEBERG, also of the fourth generation

No interment in the community, or none in the entire city that he learned about in time, ever went to Potters Field. On a particular occasion, a destitute Catholic was to be interred in a nameless grave, until Harry Nieberg claimed the body and arranged a burial according to the strictest ritual of the faith. This so impressed the clergy of the faith that they publicized the incident, to the extent that funds were sent for the destitute family from all parts of the country.

Not only in his own line of endeavor, but in other ways, such as the distribution of baskets to the needy at Easter and through donations to all whose cause was worthy, did Mr. Nieberg prove himself a benefactor. His business policy was directly inclined with his social activity, and we find him as apt a leader in his profession as he is in his community.

In 1922 Harry Nieberg introduced in New York the first "White Angel Hearse." This particular vehicle dealt the death-blow to all horse-drawn livery. So great was its demand that funerals were postponed and scheduled according to such time as it was available. It was the only one of its kind in the city until 1924. Harry Nieberg also was one of the first, in 1927, to change his stock from glass-side to limousine hearses; again in 1937 he introduced the first side-loading hearse to the city.

Despite the many minor improvements made from time to time, Mr. Nieberg looked forward to new quarters. In 1930 he contracted for the erection of a new structure on Ludlow street. At considerable cost he completed the most modern steel and concrete structure of that time. Aside from its garage space for seventy-five cars, it had a funeral chapel planned and designed specifically for mortuary use. He also instituted a mortuary room, a show-room and a slumber room to meet the demand for better services. It embodied conservative, heavy funeral drappings and appointments, as did all chapels at that time, and with its Gothic, cathedral-type front, it presented a sanctum of dignity in most accented form.

Mr. Nieberg was not only interested in improving the physical appointments of his funeral chapel, but also in raising the standards and in modernizing the practices of his clientele, in their execution of the last rites of the deceased. He represented New York on the committee that convened in Cincinnati, the Rabbinical seat of the country, to have embalming of the Jewish dead sanctioned by the men of the cloth.

With the turn of the decade and the coming of 1940, Mr. Nieberg decided to branch out and build a chapel that would meet the public's latest demands for modern facilities. Especially did he want this branch for his two sons, who had by now grown to manhood and were ready to take their places beside him. Isaac Nieberg, the namesake of his grandfather, who is a licensed embalmer and funeral director, is already active in the business. Edwin, who is finishing his education, serves his apprenticeship after school hours. His daughter, Beatrice, is a licensed funeral director and is active in the firm, as her mother had been before her. History has repeated itself for the fourth generation.

The Midwood Memorial Chapel, as the new branch is called, is located in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn. It not only reflects a modern style in architecture and appointments, but emphasizes the best forms. The plans efficiently utilized a limited amount of space, with the compactness of arrangement affording the greatest convenience for preparation and comfort of the bereaved. The structure, originally a "taxpayer" of 45 by 124 feet, and built in "L" shape, was converted into a funeral home of uncommon charm. A modern

The spacious family or mourners' room immediately adjacent the chapel left front

The Midwood Chapel is air-conditioned throughout; here the women's powder room, just off the main lounge front of limestone block and chromium grilles, with simplicity as its keynote, was selected in preference to the tomb-like Gothic architecture, as may be observed in the front cover illustration.

The entrance from the street opens onto a lobby, where cheer and warmth are the first impressions. The plum and gray flower-patterned carpeting complements the pearl-gray troweled walls and oak woodwork. Almost directly in the center of the lobby is the entrance to the chapel, spacious enough for 350 persons, yet with a four-foot center aisle carpeted in harmony with the lobby. Here again pearl-gray English troweled walls set off the oak pews and altar. The indirect lighting from behind the palms at the front of the chapel and from the pulpit itself, along with the mellow strains of the organ, give an aura of peace and dignity that "streamlining" has enhanced rather than destroyed. An oak door to the front left of the chapel slides into the wall and opens into a mourners' room where the family, if they so desire, may see and hear the services conducted in the chapel. A rich mulberry carpet acts as background for the cheerful, home-like furnishings typical of an ordinary living room.

Adjacent to the seventy-one feet of the chapel is a hall from which three slumber rooms are accessible. All have the rich appointments of the most comfortably styled living quarters. The soft tones of the easy chairs and the mellow glow from the lamps present a picture of serenity and a haven of solitude and repose that the occasion so imperatively demands. These three rooms, each 24 by 11 feet, are connected by accordion-like (Modernfold) doors of gold velvet, which may be opened to accommodate more comfortably those who have come to pay their last respects. This planning not only makes each room individual, with its separate entrance from the foyer, but makes greater elasticity in meeting the individual needs of a family. The three rooms, when converted into one, may serve as a small chapel and will seat more than a hundred. The first and third of these rooms have lavishly draped alcoves in which the deceased is laid out and may be viewed or shut out of sight by the draw curtain designed for that purpose. Another advantage of the alcoves is their adaptability to direct lighting effects on the couch from the ceiling rather than from lamps or other adjustable effects. The first floor also includes a small office with its switchboard connections to all parts of the building, including the slumber rooms. In the rear of the first floor and at right angle to the chapel and slumber rooms, is a hallway leading to the preparation room and loading facility on the side street. This arrangement utilizes the physical condition of an "L" shaped building to its best advantage, by permitting the loading of a hearse out of view of the mourners, and conversely, permitting the entrance of bodies directly into the mortuary room. A complete air-conditioning unit and the latest type of sound system have been included for maximum comfort and services.

The lower level of the Midwood Memorial Chapel, to which entrance is gained down a sweeping circular stairway, studded with palms and ferns along an iron grille, has as its first feature a spacious, beautifully appointed general lounge. Two adjoining rooms at the left, adhering to the decorative scheme of the main lounge, house the private quarters for men and women, the latter with an ante-chamber serving as a powder room. The private office of the management, a large show-room and an additional slumber room complete the room arrangement of the lower level. Ample storage rooms and quarters for the heating and air-conditioning plants, occupy the entire depth of the lower premises, along one side. The accompanying illustrations present partial views of the establishment, in which the great-grandsons and great-granddaughter of founder Benjamin Rosenthal evidence such a deep, personal pride.

The two formal openings of the Midwood Memorial Chapel were staged in March. One of these, arranged especially for the profession, was attended by hundreds of New York's funeral directors. The occasion gave some indication of the esteem in which the Nieberg organization is held by fellow operators. The public opening also attracted a wide attendance from all sections of the five boroughs. Attractive advertising in the local press featured a cordial invitation to this dedication of the new mortuary.

Founder Benjamin Rosenthal perhaps never envisioned the present-day proficiency of the "undertaking" business he founded more than a hundred years ago in old Manhattan. It is certain, however, that the precepts and principles adopted and fostered by him in this other age contributed to the staunch foundation upon which three succeeding generations have built so well and so honorably.

FANCY KREPLACH

Kreplach, a chopped meat or chicken mixture encased in dough and then cooked or fried, is traditionally served the afternoon before Yom Kippur, on Hoshana Rabba and at the Purim feast.

Dough:

- 2 cups flour
- ½ tsp. salt
- 3 Tbsps. Oil
- 2 egg yolks
- ½ cup water
- 1½ tps. baking powder or baking soda

Filling:

- 1 onion, diced
- 2 Tbsps. oil
- 1 cup ground cooked meat or chicken
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper
- 1 egg
- 1 Tbsp. matzo meal

Dough: Combine flour, salt and oil. In a separate bowl, beat egg yolks, water and baking powder (or soda). Add to flour mixture. Knead and roll out, thinly, on floured surface. Cut into 3-inch squares or circles.

Filling: Sauté onion in oil. Add chopped meat and brown for 5 minutes. Remove from heat and cool. Add salt, pepper, egg and matzo meal and mix well. Fill center of each square or circle with meat mixture. Fold into triangles, or bring both sides and bottom together towards center, pinching together and thus forming a triangle. Place in lightly salted boiling water for approximately 20 minutes until kreplach float to top. When ready, remove from pot and serve in soup. Can also be served as side dish. For firmer kreplach, fry in heated oil in skillet over medium flame until golden brown on both sides.

HAMANTASCHEN

Hamantaschen, a traditional Purim delight, is a three-cornered pastry filled with mohn (poppy seed) or other sweet filling.

- 1 cup sugar
- ½ cup oil
- ½ cup shortening
- 3 eggs
- ½ cup orange juice
- 4 cups flour
- 3 tps. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 egg, beaten
- 2 pounds mohn filling

Cream sugar, oil and shortening. Add eggs and juice and mix well. Blend with dry ingredients and roll into a ball. Divide into four parts. Roll out each piece very thin (approximately ⅛-inch) on a floured board. With the rim of a cup or glass (depending on desired size) cut into the dough to make circles. Place ½ to ¾ teaspoon of filling in the middle of each circle.

To shape into triangle, lift up right and left sides, leaving the bottom side down, and bring both sides to meet at center, above the filling. Lift bottom side up to center to meet other two sides.

Preheat oven to 350°. Brush dough with beaten egg before baking. Place on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350° for approximately 20 minutes.

Yields 4 dozen Hamantaschen.

POTATO LATKES

Because of the great significance of oil in the history of Chanukah, Latkes-fritters fried in oil—are usually served.

- 5 large potatoes, peeled
- 1 large onion

4 eggs

- ⅓ cup matzo meal
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper
- ⅓ cup oil for frying

Grate potatoes and onion on the fine side of a grater, or in food processor, or in blender with a little water added to it. Add eggs and mix well. Add matzo meal and seasoning and mix well. Heat oil in frying pan, and then add mixture, 1 tablespoon at a time. When golden brown, turn over and brown other side.

CHEESE BLINTZES

Cheese blintzes are served hot, with sour cream or applesauce. They are a special favorite on Shavuot when it is customary to eat dairy products (not hard cheese) before the main lunch meal.

Batter:

- 4 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup flour
- 1 Tbsp. sour cream
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- pinch of salt

Filling:

- 16 ounces cottage cheese
- 2 egg yolks
- 2 Tbsps. margarine or butter, melted
- 2 Tbsps. sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- ¼ cup raisins (optional)
- ⅓ cup oil for frying

Batter: Combine eggs and milk. Add sour cream and blend well. Add flour gradually. Mix well until batter is smooth. Heat on a low flame a small amount of oil in an 8-inch frying pan until hot but not smoking. Ladle a small amount of batter (approximately 1 ounce) into pan, tipping pan in all directions until batter covers the entire bottom of the pan. Fry on one side until set and golden, approximately 1 minute. Slip pancake out of pan and repeat until all batter is used. Add oil to pan as necessary.

Filling: In another bowl mix all ingredients for filling.

Assemble: Fill each pancake on golden side with 3 Tbsps. of filling. Fold in sides to center and roll blintze until completely closed. Replace rolled blintzes in pan and fry for 2 minutes, turning once.

- 1½ cups sugar
- 1 cup strong coffee
- 2 tps. baking powder
- 3 Tbsps. margarine
- 1 tsp. baking soda

SUKKOT

After a period of seriousness and reflection during the Days of Awe, we are ready for the joyous holiday of Sukkot. During Sukkot, 'the season of happiness', we rejoice in the knowledge that G-d has inscribed us for a good and healthy new year.

The name Sukkot is derived from the word Suktah, or hut. It commemorates the protective 'clouds of glory' with which G-d surrounded the Jewish people on their way out of Egypt, we live in makeshift huts during the seven days of this holiday.

During this harvest festival when the farms have been blessed with plentiful crops, we are mindful of how all our livelihood is dependent upon G-d, and how he sustained our forefathers in the desert, where they had neither home nor fields. We pray for G-d's continued help and intervention in our life.

On each day of Sukkot, except for Shabbat, we observe the special mitzvah of shaking the Lulav (palm branch) and the Etrog (citron). Together with the Hadas (myrtle) and the Arava (willow), these plants represent the various types of Jews who together form the Jewish nation. We shake all four species to affirm the unity of the Jewish nation.

SIMCHAT TORAH

Simchat Torah marks the day we complete the reading of the Torah in its annual cycle. On the evening of Simchat Torah, (in some communities, on the previous evening of Shmini Atzeret as well) we make seven Hakafot (circles) around the Bimah (table) on which the Torah is read, dancing and rejoicing with the Torah scrolls.

During morning services on Simchat Torah, the Torah is officially completed by reading the last Torah portion. We immediately read from the beginning of the Torah again, for the Torah's teachings are endless, and we shall always seek to delve deeper and deeper into its meanings.

"And you should take for yourselves ... a beautiful tree fruit, a palm branch ... and willows of the stream ..." (Vayikra 23:40) - The Four Species

THE MONTH OF ELUL

One of the major accusations often leveled at the CEO of the universe is inaccessibility. These charges are entirely unfounded. G-d is everywhere and from there He awaits your call. And just to prove it, one month before Rosh Hashana, He devotes an entire month to being as approachable as an Al-mighty Creator can get. Think of it as though the big boss took a stroll through the cubicles, happily chatting with anyone who approaches, giving each his full attention and a warm smile.

That's what our sages mean when they call Elul the month of divine compassion. During these days, you can repair all that went amiss from the entire year - with study, with charity and good deeds with meditation and prayer. That is also why we blow the Shofar a day of this month, as a wake-up call to prepare for the magnificent days to come.

ROSH HASHANA

Rosh Hashana, the beginning of the Jewish year. This is the day G-d completed His creation by creating Adam and Eve, the first humans. On the very first day of his creation, Adam acknowledged G-d's Kingship over the entire universe. We, too, continue to do so every Rosh Hashana, as we reaffirm our commitment to following G-d's commandments. An important Rosh Hashana observance is the sounding of the Shofar (the ram's horn).

YOM KIPPUR

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is the holiest day in the Jewish calendar. On this day G-d promises to forgive all our sins, as long as we regret our past and resolve to do better in the future.

During this day, we refrain from work as we do on Shabbat. In addition, we refrain from any food or drink, washing, anointing ourselves with oils or lotions, marital relations, and the wearing of leather shoes.

"Praise G-d, sun and moon; praise Him, all the shining stars ... for He commanded and they were created" (Psalms 148:3, 5) - Blessing the New Moon

THE MITZVAH OF TEFILLIN

Tefillin, or phylacteries, are donned every weekday by Jewish men and boys over the age of 13. The Torah describes Tefillin as a sign to a public statement of Jewish involvement. By donning Tefillin daily, an individual gives expression to his basic feeling of Jewish identity and its importance to him.

The Tefillin are placed on the arm facing the heart, and on the head. This signifies the binding of one's emotional and intellectual powers to the service of G-d. The straps, stretching from the arm to the hand and from the head to the legs, signify the transmission of intellectual and emotional energy to the hands and feet, symbolizing deed and action.

SHABBAT AND FESTIVAL CANDLES

Light is a subject which has stirred the imagination of poets, scientists and psychologists. Because its nature is so different from other material entities, it is frequently used to describe spiritual insight. Shabbat is a day of light; a day with a different pattern and value orientation. The lighting of the Shabbat Candles ushers in and inspires this state of awareness.

The responsibility for lighting the candles and inducing this change of perspective is the woman's. Young girls from the age of three are also encouraged to light their own candle, both as a means of involvement and as a part of their education.

RESPECT FOR PARENTS - A RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE

The fact that "to honor" and "to revere" parents are Mitzvot of the Torah, impresses upon these precepts a stamp of absoluteness - makes of them independent principles. It no longer matters whether a particular society may have a different standard of ethics and code of morality. This is the effect of the Torah's laws - to enliven the seemingly ordinary behaviors of society with a G-dly spirit.

CELEBRATING CHANUKAH

The kindling of the Menorah is the focal point of the Chanukah holiday. The Menorah symbolizes religious freedom and the strength of the Jewish spirit. The Menorah is kindled on each of the eight nights of Chanukah, this year beginning Tuesday, December 4.

Many have the custom to place the Menorah in a doorway opposite the Mezuzah so that the two Mitzvot of Mezuzah and Chanukah surround the person. Others place it on a window sill facing a public through-fare.

The Chanukah lights are kindled in the evening preceding each of the eight days of Chanukah. The custom of many communities is to light the Menorah at sunset. However, due to Shabbat observance, light it before the Shabbat candles on Friday and after the Havdalah ceremony on Shabbat.

Although an olive-oil Menorah is preferable, one may use any single-wick candle to perform this Mitzvah. Prepare the Menorah, with the appropriate number of candles, so that the candles will stay lit for a half-hour after sunset.

Recite the blessings and then light the candle beginning from the left. When finished, place the Shamash at its designated place on the Menorah. Both men and women are obligated to light the Chanukah Menorah, or to participate in the Menorah lighting by the head of the household. Children should be encouraged to light their own Menorahs.

THE TENTH OF TEVET

Observed as a fast day, marking the date on which Jerusalem put under siege by the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar, resulting in the destruction of the First Temple (422 BCE). A fast day is called a "day favorable to G-d", a time of universal introspection when we take the opportunity to better ourselves in our relationship with G-d.

TU B'SHEVAT

Tu B'Shevat, the 15th of Shevat on the Jewish calendar (this year Tuesday, January 22, 2008), is the day that marks the beginning of a "New Year for Trees." This is the season in which the earliest-blooming trees in the Land of Israel emerge from their winter sleep and begin a new fruit-bearing cycle.

Tu B'Shevat is considered a day of judgment for the trees.

To commemorate this special day, Jews throughout the world eat foods that are distinctive to and characteristic of the Holy Land, particularly from the "Seven Kinds" that are singled out by the Torah: wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives and dates. It is also customary to eat a fruit not yet eaten this season, to pronounce blessing "Shehecheyanu."

On this day we remember that "Man is a tree of the field" (Deuteronomy 20:19) and reflect on the lessons we can derive from our botanical analogue.

THE UPCOMING REDEMPTION

The belief in the upcoming redemption is one of the foundations of our faith. It has been promised to us by almost every one of our prophets, beginning with Moses. The great Jewish philosopher and codifier, Maimonides, included it in his famous Thirteen Principles of the Jewish Faith. Throughout the ages, even during the most trying times, our ancestors have always prayed for and looked forward to the Messianic Era, ushered in by Moshiach, our redeemer.

Many prominent Rabbis proclaimed this generation to be the one which will usher in the redemption.

We can prepare for this special time by studying the relevant sections in the Torah and its commentaries, and by increasing in acts of goodness and kindness. This will not only help us prepare for the redemption – this will also hasten its arrival!

THE MITZVAH OF TZEDAKAH

Our sages distinguish between two types of Mitzvot: a) the Mitzvot that are part of the service and worship of G-d, thus related to the map G-d relationship; and b) the Mitzvot affecting our fellow-humans, thus related to human relationships and concourse.

Tzedakah literally means justice but is commonly translated as charity. However, in truth Tzedakah is not mere "charity", implying an undeserved gift to the recipient, but it is the proper use for wealth, the original intention destined for it from above.

G-d could have distributed wealth evenly throughout all creation. However, He desired that we be a partner with Him perfecting His world. Thus, in truth, our material wealth is entrusted us by G-d for the purpose of using it in accordance with His will. We can now appreciate why Tzedakah means, not charity, but justice – for in giving Tzedakah to the needy, we are giving them what is rightfully theirs.

Maimonides writes in his "Laws of Charity" that there are eight degrees or levels of charity, each one greater than the previous one:

The eighth level is when one gives Tzedakah grudgingly. The seventh level is when one gives less than he should, but does so cheerfully. The sixth level is when one gives directly to the poor upon being asked. The fifth level is when one gives directly to the poor without being asked. The fourth level is when the giving is indirect – the recipient knows who the giver is, but the giver does not know the recipient. The third level is when the giver knows the identity of the recipient, but the recipient does not know the identity of the giver. The second highest level is when both the giver and receiver are unaware of each other. The highest form of Tzedakah is to help sustain a person before he becomes impoverished by offering a gift in a dignified manner, by extending an interest-free loan, or by helping him find employment.

"The Jews had light, joy, gladness and honor - so may it be for us" (Megillat Esther 8:16, Havdalah Prayer) - Purim Celebration in the Shetel

PURIM

The actual story of Purim, as told in the Scroll of Esther, is as fascinating and spell-binding as any best-seller. Yet, though it is sacred scripture, we do not find the name of G-d mentioned even once! But within the intricate details of the Megillah, we can detect the unmistakable hand of Divine Providence. The closer we look into the events, the more we discover that every seemingly insignificant event is precisely arranged by the hand of the Al-mighty.

Purim thus teaches us to take nothing for granted: even "natural" phenomena are in truth but another way of revealing G-d's providence. In fact, the more hidden the miracle, the higher its Divine source.

THE MITZVOT OF PURIM ARE:

- Refrain from food and drink on the Fast of Esther, held Thursday, March 20th, to commemorate the day of prayer and fasting which the Jews held before their victory.
- Give 3 half-dollar coins to charity on the Fast of Esther, to commemorate the half-shekel given by each Jew in the time of the Holy Temple. This Mitzvah is usually performed in the synagogue.
- Listen to the Megillat Esther (Scroll of Esther), recounting the story of Purim, both on Purim evening and during Purim day.
- Send gifts containing at least two kinds of ready-to-eat food to one or more friends on the day of Purim. These gifts, known as Mishloach Manot (lit. sending gifts), should preferably be sent via a third party.
- Give charity to at least two, but preferably more, needy individuals on Purim. While charity is a year-round responsibility particularly a special Mitzvah on Purim.
- Celebrate with a special festive and joyous meal.

HAPPY PURIM!

PESACH SHENI

The fourteenth day of the month of Iyar is Pesach Sheni, the "Second Passover." When the Holy Temple stood in Jerusalem, this day served as a "second chance" for those who were unable to bring the Passover offering on the eve of the "first" Passover one month earlier, the 14th of Nissan. We learn from this day that it is never too late, even if one has missed out on important opportunities, the door is always open to start afresh.

LAG B'OMER

On this date, in the early second century, the students of Rabbi Akiva ceased to die from an epidemic. Years later, on this date, Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, Mishnaic Sage and author of the Zohar passed away. Having fulfilled his mission in this world he asked that the anniversary of his death be celebrated as a happy day.

MEZUZAH

The Mezuzah is a small piece of parchment, containing two paragraphs of the Torah, which is affixed to the doorposts of Jewish homes and businesses. The Mezuzah reminds us of G-d's constant presence even within our dwellings and that we must fill our homes with good deeds and holiness.

A kosher Mezuzah provides protection for our homes, too. On the back of the Mezuzah are inscribed three Hebrew letters, which form the acronym of the sentence 'keeper of the doors of Israel'. The Talmud teaches that while it is customary for servants to be guarding the king's palace, G-d himself, in His great love for the Jewish people, guards the doors of our homes.

The writing of a Mezuzah is done by hand, on parchment, by a skilled scribe. It is important to purchase Mezuzot from a reliable source, and, once purchased, to have a professional scribe check them every several years.

THE HOLIDAY OF SHAVUOT

Shavuot is the second of the three major festivals (Passover being the first and Sukkot the third) and comes exactly fifty days after Passover. The Torah was given by G-d to the Jewish people on Mount Sinai over 3,300 years ago. Every year on this day we renew our acceptance of G-d's gift.

The giving of the Torah was a far-reaching spiritual event – one that touched the essence of the Jewish soul then and for all time. Our Sages have compared it to a wedding between G-d and the Jewish people. On this day G-d swore eternal devotion to us, and we in turn pledged everlasting loyalty to Him.

All-night Torah-study on the first night of Shavuot prepares us for the receiving of the Torah Reading of the Ten Commandments in the synagogue on the first day of Shavuot. Be sure to bring your children, too! A festive dairy meal is served on the first day of Shavuot. Our ancestors didn't have Kosher meat prepared yet!

THE MITZVAH OF TZITZITH

Our sages refer to the precept of Tzitzith as a simple and easy Mitzvah. But as simple and easy as it is, so rich is this Mitzvah in symbolism, and so potent in effectiveness, that it is equivalent to all the other precepts of the Torah. For surely a consistent observance of this Mitzvah of Tzitzith must lead to a proper and complete observance of all the commandments. As the Shema states, "you shall look upon them, and you shall remember all G-d's commandments and fulfill them, and you will not follow after your heart and your eyes, by which you may go astray." When thrown into the tumultuous waters of the temptations of everyday life, the Tzitzith are our life-line, the thread which we can cling to prevent us from drowning, as our Sages graphically relate how the sight of the Tzitzith stopped a man on the verge of committing a grave sin and helped him to regain control over his body and to restore his spiritual equilibrium.

THE SEVENTEENTH OF TAMMUZ

The 17th of Tammuz marks the beginning of a three-week period of national Jewish mourning. This is a sad period in our calendar during which many of our nation's calamities occurred. The period begins with a fast on the 17th of Tammuz on which we refrain from eating and drinking from dawn to nightfall, and concludes with a 25-hour fast on the 9th of Av (see more about the 9th of Av next month).

These dates had already been the scene of tragic events in the very first generation of our nationhood: Tammuz 17 was the day Moses smashed the Tablets of the Covenant upon beholding Israel's worship of the Golden Calf. Av 9 was the day that G-d decreed that the generation of the Exodus shall die out in the desert, after they refused to pre to the Holy Land in wake of the Spies' demoralizing report.

In these events lay the seeds of a breakdown in the relationship between G-d and Israel – a breakdown which reached its nadir in the destruction of the Temple.

After an extended siege, the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans on the 17th of Tammuz. The Jewish defenders continued to defend the Temple Mount for another 19 days, until it, too, fell on the 7th of Av. The Bais HaMikdosh, the holy temple, was torched late on Av 9th.

During this three-week period, we celebrate no weddings and hold no festivities. Also prohibited are haircuts and live music. On the other hand, we increase in Torah study and giving Tzedakah to counteract the negative forces attached to the period.

THE NINE DAYS OF MOURNING

Beginning with the first of Av, the mourning intensifies. From day until midday on the tenth of Av (excluding Shabbat), we refrain from consuming meat or wine and from various pleasurable activities as a sign of additional mourning.

"Let my right hand forget its dexterity ... if I do not place Jerusalem above my highest joy" (Psalms 137:5-6) - Jerusalem of Gold

"Just as Moshe saw a bush burning without being consumed, so the Jews would be exiled under four empires and survive" (Yalkut Shimoni)

TISH'AH B'AV - THE NINTH OF AV

The Ninth of Av has been a sad day for Jews since early Jewish history. On this date, just one year after our forefathers left Egypt, G-d decreed that they would stay in the desert for forty years. Most recently, World War I began on Av 9. The focus of our mourning, however, is on the destruction, on this date, of both the first Temple (422 BCE) and the second Temple (68 CE).

The observances of the fast of Tish'ah B'Av are similar to those of Yom Kippur. It is a 25-hour fast, during which we refrain from wearing leather shoes, showering, and marital relations.

Additionally, on the eve of the fast, the scroll of F (Lamentations) is read in the synagogue. Until noon, we sit on low seats only, as a mourner does during Shiva. May we merit seeing the ultimate redemption by Moshiach, speedily in our days.

SHABBAT NACHAMU

The Shabbat following the Ninth of Av is the Shabbat of joy over our anticipated consolation. It is called Shabbat Nachamu, for the prophetic portion that is read is taken from Chapter 40 of Isaiah which begins with the words "Nachamu, nachamu ami" - "Console, console my people, says your G-d." The Haftarah of Shabbat Nachamu is the first of the "seven consolations" - the seven Haftarot which are read on the seven Sabbaths following the Ninth of Av.

THE FIFTEENTH OF AV

"There were no greater holidays to the Jewish people than that of the 15th of Av and of Yom Kippur" (Mishna). Celebrated for many reasons, first of which is the end of the 40-year decree cast upon the Jewish people to wander in the desert. After having felt the severity of Divine punishment, the Jews once again rejoiced in the newlyfound favor G-d showed them, like a son reunited with his father after many bitter years of loneliness and tribulation.

"Sound the shofar ... on the designated time of our holy day, for it is a decree for Israel, a time of judgment for the G-d of Jacob" (Psalms 81:4-5)

THE MONTH OF ELUL

As the last month of the Jewish year, Elul is traditionally a time of introspection and stocktaking – a time to review one's deeds and spiritual progress over the past year and prepare for the upcoming "Days of Awe" of Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur.

As the month of "Divine Mercy and Forgiveness," Elul is a most opportune time for Teshuvah ("return" to G-d), prayer, charity, and increased Ahavat Yisrael (love for a fellow Jew) in the quest for self-improvement and coming closer to G-d. Rabbi Schneur Zalman Liadi likens the month of Elul to a time when "the king is in the field" and, in contrast to when he is in the royal palace, "everyone who desires is permitted to meet him, and he receives them all with cheerful countenance and shows a smiling face to them all."

Each day of the month of Elul (except for Shabbat and the last day of Elul), we sound the Shofar (ram's horn) as a call to repentance.

Elul is a good time to have one's Tefillin and Mezuzot checked by an accredited scribe to ensure that they are in good condition and fit for use.

During the last week of Elul, in the days leading up to Rosh Hashana, the Slichot prayers are recited, the first night at midnight, the following days in the early morning.

ROSH HASHANA

Rosh Hashana, the beginning of the Jewish year, is also considered the world's birthday. This is the day G-d completed His creation by creating Adam and Eve, the first humans. An important Rosh Hashana observance is the sounding of the Shofar (the ram's horn). The Shofar has many meanings. It symbolizes our coronation of G-d as King; reminds us to 'wake up' and return to G-d, and it foreshadows the coming of Moshiach, which will be heralded by the sounding of the Shofar.

SHABBAT AND FESTIVAL CANDLES

THE SHABBAT CANDLES

A married woman customarily lights two candles and may add an additional one for each of her children. An unmarried girl should light one candle in deference to her mother.

As soon as a young girl can understand the idea of the Shabbat and can say the blessing (approximately 3 years old) her parents should provide her with a candlestick and teach her to kindle the Shabbat candles. The young girl should light before her mother in case she needs assistance from her.

It is customary to put a few coins into a Tzedakah Pushka (charity box) before lighting the candles. The correct time to light the Shabbat candles is 18 minutes before sunset every Friday. Young girls should light just prior to this time.

THE FESTIVAL CANDLES

Just as candles are lit in honor of the Shabbat so are they lit in honor of the festivals. Various blessings are recited on different festivals. See the chart Blessings for Festival Candle Lighting.

Procedure for Lighting the Shabbat Candles

The woman (or young girl) lights the candles, then spreads her hands out around the candles, drawing her hands inwards in a circular motion three times to indicate her acceptance of the sanctity of the Shabbat.

She then covers her eyes and says the blessing:

Bo-ruch A-toh Ado-noi E-lo-hei-nu Me-lech Ho-olom A-sher Ki-de-sho-nu Be-mitz-vo-sov Vi-tzi-vo-nu Le-had-lik Ner Shel Shabbos Ko-desh.

Translation: Blessed are You, L-rd, our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and has commanded us to kindle the light of the holy Shabbat. She then uncovers her eyes to behold the Shabbat lights.*

The time of lighting is considered especially propitious to pray to G-d for health and happiness. The prayer is readily accepted because it is said during the performance of this great mitzvah of lighting the Shabbat candles.

CAUTION: The candles must be lit before sunset. It is prohibited and is a desecration of the Shabbat to light the candles after sunset.

When lighting after the onset of a festival, a pre-existing flame must be used to light the candles since it is prohibited to create a new flame by striking a match or lighter, etc. However, it is permissible to use (or transfer fire from) a flame burning continuously since the onset of the festival, such as a pilot light, gas or candle flame.

Local Activist I. Stephen Miller Dies At 59

By Gary Buiso

I. Stephen Miller, the irreverent community activist, teacher and local historian, died Monday at New York Presbyterian Hospital-New York Weill Cornell Medical Center in Manhattan. He was 59 years old. Miller underwent triple bypass surgery in October, and developed complications. The cause of death was heart failure, according to a family member.

Ira Stephen Miller was born in Brooklyn on Feb. 9, 1945. He grew up in Marine Park, attended Public School 207, James Madison High School, and Brooklyn College. After college, he taught social studies, as well as other subjects at Public School 209 on East 7th Street.

Miller forged a place for Sheepshead Bay in the annals of local history, educating local groups about the minutiae of the neighborhood with the founding of the Sheepshead Bay Historical Society. He is listed as a contributor to the book "Brooklyn's Gold Coast: The Sheepshead Bay Communities."

Aside from his work with the historical society, friends and relatives recall a charitable man who would donate his time and money to causes he deemed worthy.

He was the former president of the 61st Precinct Community Council; was involved with a range of projects at Coney Island Hospital; as a teacher, he was a UFT chapter leader; Miller was also a member of Community Board 15, weathering an internal power struggle last year.

"Some of his generosity was public and some was private—both to organizations and individuals who were down and out—to a degree that most people would not believe," said longtime friend Bernie Hirschhorn.

Miller had a reputation of being somewhat quirky, Hirschhorn said. "He was loud and flamboyant. He had an offbeat sense of humor. The ones that knew him appreciated it," he said. "He loved center stage."

Miller helped local not-for-profit organizations with grant writing and was also involved with continuing efforts to revitalize Sheepshead Bay.

He was a world traveler, collecting cultural artifacts, including masks and dolls from places like Africa, Asia and South America. "He had a breadth of knowledge that was always surprising," Hirschhorn said.

Esther Miller, Stephen's sister, said her brother followed his own path.

"He basically was not a follower. He was a leader. He stood out in the forefront and didn't abide by other people's rules," she said.

It was Miller who refused to resign from the community board last year—even after the borough president demanded that every member do so. Miller was the only member not to submit a letter of resignation.

"There is no question as to his motivation and his dedication to the community. He will be missed," said Jerry O'Shea, the chair of Community Board 15.

Local activist Ed Eisenberg recalled Miller as someone who seized life, despite suffering from a host of health problems, including diabetes.

"He really was a doer," Eisenberg said. Even as his health was failing, his sister recalled, Stephen remained optimistic. "He wanted so much to live," she said. "He was looking forward to next year, and a big birthday party."

Miller is survived by his sister, of Long Island, and twin brother Lloyd, of New Jersey.

Memorial services will be held on Sunday, Dec. 19 at Nieberg's Midwood Chapel, 1625 Coney Island Avenue at 10 a.m. I. Stephen Miller will be buried at New Montefiore Cemetery in West Babylon, L.I.

Maxie Rubenstein, 'Mr. Israel of Brooklyn,' Dead At 87

By Gary Buiso

Maxie Rubenstein, a big-hearted community activist known for his untiring dedication to Israel, died Tuesday at Coney Island Hospital. He was 87 years old.

The cause of death was heart failure, according to his family.

Known as "Mr. Israel of Brooklyn," Rubenstein helped raise money for a number of charities in Israel, a place he visited on dozens of occasions, according to Sandy Fleischer, secretary at the Avenue Z Jewish Center, where Rubenstein was president.

Organizations receiving his support included United Jewish Appeal, Boys Town of Jerusalem and Shaare Zedek Medical Center in Jerusalem, where he dedicated an ambulance.

Rubenstein was also a key figure at the center's annual luncheon and bonds drive, which helped raise money for Israel.

Rubenstein, who lived in Sheepshead Bay, ran a home furnishings store in Williamsburg.

But his life's work, those who knew him said, was to lend support to Israel.

Friends recalled Rubenstein as a kind-hearted man who brought a boundless energy to causes in which he believed.

"He was for Israel all the way," said Samuel Bettman, the center's vice president and an associate of Rubenstein's for the past 40 years.

Bettman recalled "a happy fellow" who was a "supporter of all organizations."

Rubenstein's efforts were recognized throughout the borough and beyond, according to Borough President Marty Markowitz.

"Nobody was more passionate about Israel, or the safeguarding of the Jewish state than Maxie," Markowitz said.

"Very often Max would say that Israel is another suburb of Brooklyn. His charm got everyone excited about supporting Israel, both Israel Bonds and everything to do with Israel. Because of his advocacy, we are all the better. So is Israel and so are those that treasure freedom and democracy," the borough president added.

His diminutive stature could be deceptive, according to State Senator Carl Kruger. Maxie was a "true giant among men," Kruger said.

Kruger described Rubenstein as a talented fundraiser who refused to take no for an answer—and usually, "he didn't have to."

"Despite his small stature and sprightly, smiling demeanor, you always knew you were dealing with a consummate professional, a tough cookie, and a dedicated humanitarian," Kruger said.

Rubenstein is survived by his wife, Annie. Services were held Wednesday at the Jewish Center. Some 200 people attended, according to a chapel staff member.

Rubenstein was buried at Wellwood Cemetery in Farmingdale, Long Island.

Danzig goes out a winner at Monticello

Friday, December 21, 2007 - by John Manzi, publicity director, Monticello Raceway

Monticello, NY --- It was to be the final race of his career and as if scripted, Danzig will go out a winner.

The 10-year-old altered son of Garland Lobell, owned for nearly all of his racing career by Harry Nieberg of Brooklyn, N.Y., scored a 2:04 triumph in a non-winners trot at Monticello Raceway on Friday afternoon, December 21, with his proud owner on hand to witness it. Jimmy Marohn, Jr. drove the $406,000 lifetime winner to an easy 1-1/2 length victory which was Danzig's 54th of his career.

Danzig closed out his career with a victory on Friday at Monticello.

to the front after the field settled which was exactly what Marohn did. He moved from the third position and grabbed command just before the turn and when he did Nieberg said, "We'll be tough to beat from here."

Nieberg, whose eyes were welled-up with joy, was right on the money as he watched Danzig lead his competition around the track and then scoot away in the final turn to coast home an easy winner.

After the race Danzig's trainer, Jean Claude Jobidon, joined Nieberg in the winner's circle and he was as proud as his patron.

"I've had Danzig most of his career and he has always been a good horse. Though he had to be laid up from time to time with (racing) injuries he always came back and gave his best," Jobidon said with a French-Canadian accent. "And he could probably still go on and race but Harry doesn't want anyone to hurt him by racing him until he drops so instead he wants him to have a good home."

Nieberg had been seeking a good home for Danzig when two weeks ago he notified the Mighty M publicity department that his next start would be his last. And though Danzig's race last week was scuttled because of snow, in the interim Nieberg found a home for Danzig when David Phoenix of Ohio called him and said he would love to have the horse since his other retiree had just lost a companion.

Nieberg watched the race from the winner's circle where the track's publicity department was set to honor the trotter, win, lose, or draw but Danzig had an idea of his own and with Marohn's help they made their trip to the winner's circle because they were victorious.

"I got a call from Dave Palone the other day and he told me that Phoenix has one of his retired horses and that Danzig will have the greatest of homes there," Nieberg said.

Asked if he had changed his mind about retiring Danzig after his victory Nieberg quickly snapped, "Nope."

"I had other horses in the past that were also good to me and after I lost them in claimers they quickly went downhill and there is no way that I'm going to take a chance with Danzig. He deserves to live a life of Riley and I feel confident that he will."

Chain Will Sell 3 Jewish Funeral Homes to Lessen Control

By ALAN FEUER
Published: November 18, 1999

The market for Jewish funeral services in Manhattan and Brooklyn is now dominated by the world's largest funeral home operator, investigators from the state attorney general's office said yesterday.

The company, Service Corporation International, has been acquiring independently owned Jewish funeral parlors in the two boroughs for nearly 30 years, and as competition has decreased because of its acquisitions, has been charging higher fees for services and caskets, the state attorney general, Eliot Spitzer, said.

Mr. Spitzer made the accusations while announcing an out-of-court agreement in lieu of bringing antitrust charges against Service Corporation. The settlement calls for the company to divest itself of three of its Jewish funeral parlors and notify the state if it plans to buy more Jewish funeral homes in the city during the next 10 years.

"It's difficult enough to bury a loved one without having to pay unfairly high prices on top of it," Mr. Spitzer said. "With this agreement, we want to help ensure that customers are not taken advantage of during a time of great grief."

Under the agreement, Service Corporation will sell the Plaza Memorial Chapel in Manhattan and the Kirschenbaum Brothers Funeral Home and Garlick Funeral Home of Brooklyn, said Kim Savard, a company spokeswoman. The company admitted no wrongdoing under the agreement, she said, and she predicted that it would have prevailed if antitrust charges had been brought.

Service Corporation of Houston calls itself "the world's largest provider of death care services." It owns 3,824 funeral homes, 520 cemeteries and 198 crematories in 18 countries.

Questions about its acquisitions arose in February, when the city's Department of Consumer Affairs issued a report saying the company had been acquiring funeral parlors since entering the New York market in 1971, and that its acquisitions had made it harder to select a funeral director on the basis of price.

The report said the company arranges about 13 percent of all funerals in New York City. The commissioner of consumer affairs, Jules Polonetsky, asked the attorney general to investigate whether the acquisitions violated antitrust law.

Mr. Spitzer contended that they had. He said Jewish families were particularly harmed by the acquisitions, because Service Corporation owned all but one of the five Jewish funeral homes in Manhattan, controlling more than 90 percent of the market. In Brooklyn, where there are 18 Jewish funeral homes, he said, the company owns seven of the busiest, which arrange about 65 percent of Jewish funerals there.

Such market control has allowed Service Corporation to charge 30 to 40 percent more than most independent funeral parlors, Mr. Spitzer said.

Ms. Savard said the company owns many luxury funeral parlors offering amenities like doormen and 24-hour service, and that it was unfair to compare prices at such funeral homes with those charged by smaller homes.

Mr. Spitzer also charged that the company kept the names of the parlors it bought to create the illusion that they were still independently owned, and forced former owners to sign agreements that barred them from opening competing funeral homes, sometimes for as long as 20 years. The company's spokeswoman said those practices were common in many industries.

Stanley Brettschneider, owner of the Brettschneider Funeral Home, the sole independent Jewish funeral parlor in Manhattan, said the acquisitions by Service Corporation had not reduced his business. "They never bothered me at all," he said. "We're cheaper."

Peter Nieberg, owner of the independent Nieberg-Midwood Chapel in Brooklyn, said he would not be able to tell how the divestiture would affect the market until another company bought the three funeral homes involved in the settlement.

"It could cause a problem if they sell to one of the other big players," Mr. Nieberg said. "Maybe I'll get my checkbook out."

Ms. Savard said her company had not yet approached potential buyers, and had not received any offers for the homes.

EXHIBIT 5

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

-----X
HARRY NIEBERG,

Plaintiff,

Index No.: 44408/07.

v.

PETER NIEBERG and
STANLEY NIEBERG as Trustees of the
GERTRUDE NIEBERG FAMILY INSURANCE TRUST,

COMPLAINT

Defendants.
-----X

PLAINTIFF HARRY NIEBERG, by and through his attorneys, LEWIS BRISBOIS
BISGAARD & SMITH, LLP, alleges the following:

PARTIES

1. Defendant Peter Nieberg is an individual residing in Brooklyn, New York.
2. Defendant Stanley Nieberg is an individual residing in Brooklyn, New York.
3. Plaintiff Harry Nieberg is an individual residing in Brooklyn, New York.

INTRODUCTION

4. Plaintiff hereby restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all foregoing paragraphs.

5. Upon information and belief, on or about November 1993, Gertrude Nieberg, the insured under New York Life Insurance policy 44945203, intended to establish an irrevocable life insurance trust called the Gertrude Nieberg Family Insurance Trust ("Trust"). (See Gertrude Nieberg Family Insurance Trust annexed hereto as Exhibit "A").

6. The subject matter of the Trust was to be life insurance policy 44945203, ("the "Policy").

7. Upon information and belief the Policy's initial effective period was May 25, 1993-May 25, 1994.

8. Upon information and belief the owner of the policy was Nieberg Midwood Chapel Inc.

9. At the time of the purchase Plaintiff Harry Nieberg owned Nieberg Midwood Chapel Inc. in 1/3 shares with Defendants Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg.

10. The Trust Agreement named as Trustees Peter Nieberg, Stanley Nieberg and Harry Nieberg, sons of Gertrude Nieberg.

11. The Trust Agreement transferred to the Trustees all of Gertrude Nieberg's right, title and interest in and to the Policy to be held by the Trustees in trust.

12. Paragraph XI IRREVOCABILITY expressly created an irrevocable trust under which Gertrude Nieberg "relinquishes all rights to alter, amend, revoke or terminate the Trust Agreement". (See Exhibit "A").

13. By its terms, the Trust was to be distributed to the Trustees as Beneficiaries in 1/3 shares upon Gertrude Nieberg's death.

14. On or about May 5, 2005, a Transfer of Ownership / Designation of Successor Owner form was completed by Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg purporting to transfer the ownership of the Policy to Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg. (See Transfer of Ownership / Designation of Successor Owner form annexed hereto as Exhibit "B").

15. A Change of Beneficiary form was also completed by Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg with respect to the Policy purporting to change the beneficiaries of the policy to Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg in 50% shares. (See Change of Beneficiary form annexed hereto as Exhibit "C").

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST BOTH DEFENDANTS FOR FRAUDULENT CONVERSION

16. Plaintiff hereby restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all foregoing paragraphs.

17. The transfer of ownership and change of beneficiary forms were completed by Peter Nieberg and Stanley Nieberg, without the required authorization of Trustee / Beneficiary Harry Nieberg.

18. The transfer of ownership and change of beneficiary were in direct conflict to the terms of the Trust and thereby amounted to a fraudulent conversion of the subject matter of the Trust and the future proceeds of the Trust.

19. In the event that a Trust was not created, the transfer of ownership and change of beneficiary were in direct conflict to the terms of the policy and thereby amounted to a fraudulent conveyance of the policy.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST BOTH DEFENDANTS BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY OF LOYALTY

20. Plaintiff hereby restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all foregoing paragraphs.

21. As Trustees, Defendants owed a fiduciary duty of loyalty to the Trust and to Harry Nieberg as Trustee and Beneficiary of the Trust.

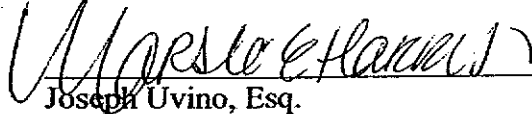

22. The transfer of ownership and change of beneficiary were in direct conflict to the terms of the Trust, depleted the subject matter of the Trust and thereby amounted to a breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty to the Trust and to Harry Nieberg as Trustee and Beneficiary.

Wherefore Plaintiff Harry Nieberg respectfully requests the Court enter judgment against the Defendants for the following relief:

- (1) Reformation of the Policy to reflect the fact that at the time of purchase, Harry Nieberg as 1/3 owner of Nieberg Midwood Chapel, Inc. owned 1/3 of the Policy.
- (2) Or, in the alternative, reformation of the Trust to its state in November 1993 wherein Harry Nieberg is a Trustee and Beneficiary of 1/3 of the proceeds of the policy, the subject matter of the Trust.
- (3) punitive damages;
- (4) costs and reasonable attorneys' fees;
- (5) and any other relief that the Court deems appropriate and just under the circumstances.

Plaintiffs, by their attorneys, LICHTER GLIEDMAN OFFENKRANTZ PC, as and for their Verified Complaint, allege as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. ("NIEBERG") and MIDWOOD MEMORIAL CHAPEL INC. ("MEMORIAL"), are corporations duly organized under the laws of the State of New York and each is duly licensed to provide professional funeral services at their principal place of business at 1625 Coney Island Avenue, Corner Avenue M, in the Borough of Brooklyn, City and State of New York 11230.

2. Defendant HARRY NIEBERG ("HARRY"), is a resident of the Borough of Brooklyn and the former owner of one-third of the stock of plaintiffs, NIEBERG and MEMORIAL.

3. Defendant, HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME INC. ("NIEBERG FUNERAL"), is a newly formed entity under the laws of the State of New York, and holds itself out as doing business under that name in the Yellow Pages and in signage and placards at the premises occupied by SHERMAN FUNERAL HOME, INC. ("SHERMAN") located at 1283

Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11230. A copy of a photograph showing the manner in which HARRY has advertised his funeral business at SHERMAN's is attached hereto and marked Exhibit A.

4. Upon information and belief, SHERMAN, is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York and is duly licensed to provide professional funeral services at its principal place of business at 1283 Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11230.

5. Plaintiffs and SHERMAN are and have been in competition in the field of performing professional funeral services and are located three blocks apart on Coney Island Avenue in the Borough of Brooklyn,

6. Plaintiffs have operated under the trade name and title "HARRY NIEBERG & SONS" and/or NIEBERG since HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. was formed in 1939 and continuously thereafter, first, by HARRY NIEBERG, then by HARRY NIEBERG's children, and later by grandchildren, PETER J. NIEBERG ("PETER"), STANLEY J. NIEBERG ("STANLEY"), and defendant HARRY NIEBERG, the latter of whom ceased active involvement with plaintiffs in or about 1990 to pursue other interests.

7. From and since 1939, HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. and its successor corporations, including plaintiffs herein, have prominently advertised the trade name "NIEBERG" or "HARRY NIEBERG & SONS" on its funeral facilities, have advertised the name "NIEBERG" and/or "HARRY NIEBERG & SONS" in numerous publications in the Metropolitan area of New York City and, particularly, the Borough of Brooklyn, have been featured in numerous articles and publications as a family run business dating back to the 1930's and still performing professional funeral arrangements to the point that the name NIEBERG and HARRY NIEBERG & SONS has achieved secondary meaning as a trademark and trade name and has become well known in the City of New York to represent the professional care and attention of the NIEBERG FAMILY, the continuation of the family name, and the well deserved reputation and adherence to strict Jewish traditions in the performance of funeral services.

8. Attached hereto and collectively marked Exhibit B are representative samples of advertising, feature articles, and photographs, all representing, portraying and commenting upon the use of the HARRY NIEBERG & SONS and/or NIEBERG trade name and history of the NIEBERG FAMILY.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

INFRINGEMENT OF TRADE
NAME AND UNFAIR
COMPETITION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

9. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs "1" through "8" as if fully set forth herein.

10. Heretofore and during the period 1990 through 2005 and at a time when PETER, STANLEY and HARRY were each one-third shareholders of plaintiff corporations, HARRY engaged in businesses unrelated to the funeral business, but continued to receive salary and other benefits from plaintiffs on the same basis as PETER and STANLEY, and served as an officer and director of plaintiffs and Trustee of the HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. Defined Pension Plan.

11. In or about 2005, a dispute arose between PETER and STANLEY on the one hand, and HARRY on the other, regarding HARRY's continued receipt of salary and other perquisites of employment, although not performing or attending to funeral services performed by the plaintiffs.

12. In or about 2006, subsequent to proceedings instituted in the Supreme Court, Kings County, by HARRY for dissolution of plaintiffs, PETER, STANLEY and HARRY entered into an Agreement of Purchase and Sale with HARRY wherein and whereby HARRY sold, and transferred his entire one-third interest in the plaintiffs together with the good will appertinent thereto for a sum of in excess of $2,000,000 and received from the HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. Defined Pension Fund of which he was a Trustee, all of his entitlements thereby severing his relationship from plaintiffs, from PETER and STANLEY, and from the HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. Pension Fund, the latter of which is in the course of liquidation and HARRY resigned as an officer of plaintiffs.

13. Thereafter, and at a point of time not presently known to plaintiffs, HARRY embarked on a course of conduct together with SHERMAN unfairly to compete with plaintiffs and improperly use HARRY's given name, HARRY NIEBERG, to cause confusion in the funeral industry and confusion on the part of the consumers located in plaintiffs geographical area and in the Jewish community from which and for which plaintiffs perform their services by, among other things, advertising and promoting the name "HARRY NIEBERG" or "HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME" in the immediate proximity of plaintiffs' funeral home, to wit, three blocks away, all with the purpose and intent of interfering with and diminishing plaintiffs' good will in the community, and diluting the value of the good will for which plaintiffs paid when they bought out HARRY's interest.

14. Prior to the institution of this action, plaintiffs duly demanded that HARRY and SHERMAN cease and desist from using or advertising the "HARRY NIEBERG" name in connection with the performance of funeral services and HARRY has rejected the request and SHERMAN has temporarily removed the HARRY sign, but has not stopped HARRY from using its address on Coney Island Avenue for Yellow Pages purposes as HARRY's place of business. Copies of the notices sent to HARRY and SHERMAN by Federal Express are attached hereto as Exhibit C.

15. The operation of a funeral home or the offering of funeral services under the name "HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME" and/or the use of the name "HARRY NIEBERG" at the SHERMAN location, and/or the use of the name NIEBERG at the SHERMAN location or in the City of New York, constitutes unfair competition with plaintiffs, deceit upon the public and threatens to impair and cause severe damage to the high reputation, good will and profits of the plaintiffs in their business and cause irreparable damage to plaintiffs for which they have no adequate remedy at law.

16. Plaintiffs have given no consent, express or implied, to defendants or any of them for the use by the defendants of the name "HARRY NIEBERG" or "NIEBERG" in connection with the operation of a funeral home in the City of New York and plaintiffs have advised defendants that the use of the name "NIEBERG" in such connection in the City of New York, will result in the plaintiffs taking legal action.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF IMPLIED COVENANT AGAINST COMPETITION AND/OR USE OF THE TRADE NAME "HARRY NIEBERG" OR "NIEBERG"

17. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs "1" through "16" as if fully set forth herein.

18. Heretofore and in 2006, HARRY sold all of his shares in plaintiffs, caused the early termination of the HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. Pension Plan of which he was a Trustee, and received all sums due him under said Plan as part of a bargained for resolution of the dispute with PETER and STANLEY and the dissolution proceedings instituted by HARRY.

19. By virtue of the foregoing, and the receipt by HARRY of all sums paid, HARRY impliedly covenanted not to compete with plaintiffs in the area of funeral services and impliedly covenanted not to use the names "NIEBERG" or "HARRY NIEBERG" or any other name confusingly similar to that of plaintiffs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

ACTION FOR DAMAGES

20. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth above in paragraphs "1" through "19" as if fully set forth herein.

21. By virtue of the foregoing, and the acts and conduct of which plaintiffs complain, defendants are liable to plaintiffs in damages in an amount to be determined by the Court at trial.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment against defendants:

1. Preliminarily and permanently enjoining them and each of them from using or employing or causing to be used or employed the names "NIEBERG" or "HARRY NIEBERG" and any other style or designation, which includes the name "NIEBERG" in or as part of the trade or business name under which the defendants or either of them conducts the funeral business in the City of New York;

2. Ordering and adjudging that defendants or either of them be preliminarily and permanently enjoined from displaying, distributing or circulating or causing the display, distribution or circulation of any advertisements or other promotional material, including without limitation, newspapers, magazines, Yellow Pages on line or in print, or any other type of

advertisements, announcements, listings, signs, or placards in which the name "NIEBERG" or "HARRY NIEBERG" are employed, in whole or in part, to identify any funeral service business which defendants or either of them may conduct in the City of New York;

3. Ordering and adjudging that defendants and either of them promptly cancel or withdraw or cause to be cancelled or withdrawn any such advertisements or other promotional material which have already been placed or ordered to be published, distributed or circulated by persons other than said defendants;

4. Awarding plaintiffs' damages in an amount to be determined by the Court at trial inclusive of costs of this litigation and attorneys' fees; and

5. Granting such other and further relief as to the Court seems just and proper in the premises.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE JUDGMENT

)ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

PETER NIEBERG, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am one of defendants herein and an officer of each of defendant corporations. I make this Affidavit in Support of the relief sought in the within Order to Show Cause.

2. This is the latest in a series of vexatious law suits instituted by my brother, HARRY NIEBERG ("HARRY") in this Court and in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York following defendants buyout of HARRY's shareholder interests in the corporate defendants as of August 2006.

3. HARRY and each individual defendant was a one-third shareholder in the NIEBERG family business, which operates a funeral home in Brooklyn, New York and conducts funerals in the tri-state area.

4. When HARRY's one-third interest was bought out in August 2006 all of the parties entered into a stipulation and general release, which provided for the payment to HARRY of more than $2,000,000 and provided further for the termination and distribution of the Pension Plan of which HARRY was both a trustee and beneficiary.

5. Because the Pension Plan could not be immediately terminated and its assets distributed, the parties provided for an orderly liquidation, approval by the Internal Revenue Service, and, thereafter, payment to HARRY of his share of the Pension distributable to him. That obligation was secured by Confessions of Judgment in which the actuary estimated a distribution to Harry of $291,000 and that amount was set forth in the Confession. The Confessions of Judgment were the security for – but did not guarantee – the amount of the payment actually due to HARRY from the Pension Plan as determined by the actuaries for the Plan. The Confessions were held in escrow by HARRY's attorneys..

6. At a point in time, after HARRY instituted actions in this Court against me and my brother, STANLEY NIEBERG, for alleged wrongful activity as purported Trustees of a non existent insurance trust (see Supreme Court State of New York, County of Kings, HARRY NIEBERG, plaintiff v. PETER NIEBERG and STANLEY NIEBERG, as Trustees of the GERTRUDE NIEBERG FAMILY INSURANCE TRUST, defendants, Index No. 44408/2007) and after threatening to, and actually doing business, three blocks away under the name HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME even though we were continually operating NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. under that name and under the trade name HARRY NIEBERG & SONS INC. (which resulted in two litigations, one in this Court (Index No. 52541/2004) and a second in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, HARRY NIEBERG, an individual and HARRY NIEBERG FUNERAL HOME INC., a New York Corporation v. NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC., a New York Corporation, MIDWOOD MEMORIAL CHAPEL INC., a New York Corporation, - NIEBERG MIDWOOD CHAPEL INC. and MIDWOOD MEMORIAL CHAPEL INC., New York Corporations, Defendants, Index No. 00392 2008 (MGC)), HARRY procured, from the escrow holder, the Confessions of Judgment securing the pension obligation on the ruse that a default had occurred and later, after he received his pension benefits check in the amount of $275,644.80, proceeded to enter those Confessions of Judgment in the amount of $291,000 on January 8, 2008 even though by January 7, 2008, he held in his possession, the very pension distribution which the Confessions secured. A copy of the pension check, both front and back, dated January 1, 2008, showing its endorsement and deposit by HARRY is attached hereto as Exhibit A. A copy of the Confessions of Judgment and judgment reflecting the filing in the Office of the Clerk of this Court on January 8, 2008 is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

7. Prior to the making of this application, defendants' requested that HARRY's counsel voluntarily vacate those judgments since the Confessions were only security for the payment of an obligation which was paid, and because all other claims were barred by the general release HARRY had executed. HARRY's counsel, Joseph Uvino, Esq., refused to do so on the stated ground that Harry was entitled "to pursue the amount he believes should have been available to him from that [pension] account." A copy of the general release portion of the Stipulation and Buyout Agreement of August 2006 and a copy of the portion of the Stipulation which provides that the only reason for the existence of the Confessions of Judgment in the first place were to act as security for payment of the pension distribution to HARRY are attached collectively as Exhibit C.

8. The judgment lien of the judgments entered by HARRY in the amount of $291,000 have impaired defendants' credit, constitute liens against the real property owned by defendants including the property on which defendants' funeral home is located, as well as my home, all of which constitutes malicious and abusive conduct on the part of HARRY, who fraudulently and abusively undertook to file the confessions and obtain a judgment for $291,000 the day after he had already received his $275,644.80 distribution check from the Pension Plan.

9. The long and short of HARRY's abusive conduct is as follows:

(a) He procured the release from escrow of Confessions of Judgment after he was told that no default had occurred which would warrant the release.

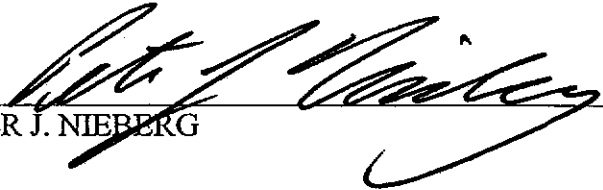

(b) He was cautioned not to enter judgments because no default existed.

(c) He was told by the Pension actuary that distribution of his share was going to be made.

(d) He was sent and received by Federal Express his distribution check from the Pension Plan in the amount of $275,644.80 on January 7, 2008.

(e) With the Pension distribution check in hand, he then took the Confessions of Judgment to the County Clerk's Office on January 8, 2008 and procured entry of the judgment in his favor in the $291,000 amount and then proceeded to cash the Pension check, all of which I respectfully submit is fraudulent and abusive conduct for which counsel fees and sanctions should be assessed.
